

Located on the campus of UNC Greensboro, The Weatherspoon Art Museum has six galleries and a sculpture courtyard with over 17,000 square feet of exhibition space. One of the largest modern art venues in the southeast, the museum's permanent collection includes works by Alexander Calder, Enrique Chagoya, Eva Hesse, Willem de Kooning, Alison Saar and Andy Warhol, among others. Admission to the museum is free.

